For those looking for transparency and security, we want to emphasize that this is the contract that has been audited by Certik, thus guaranteeing its reliability and robustness.

You can take a look directly at the provided link, which will take you to the update made on BscScan.

But the news doesn't stop here.

In the upcoming days, we will inform you of the contract update on essential platforms such as CoinMarketCap and CoinGecko

So, stay tuned and ready for more updates.

We appreciate your patience and support.

Your trust in XHYPE is what drives us to improve day by day.
